Our

"Where's Mr. Sheets?"

"If that Misch girls show up, tell her I'm not here."

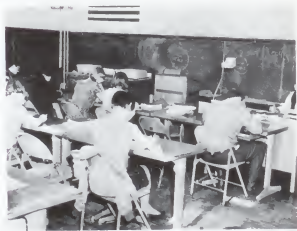

"Don't cry Duke, but I have to go to my class."

"Brother Kenning, can I help you?"

"Everybody sing: 'I want to hold your hand.'"

Pleasant change from Seniors?

(c) Conference Game

This group of boys did a fine job considering the fact they were undermanned having only about fifteen varsity "mature" boys to use. The boys had to go both ways and this tired them greatly toward the end of the game. Looking over the scores, though, one can readily see that in five of the losses the score was extremely close, around one touchdown difference and these could have been turned around with a break in DeMotte's favor.

What must be said is that this is by far the roughest schedule DeMotte has had as it is the schedule to be followed when consolidation comes. Most of the opponents had the advantage of a larger student body.

Our special award winners this year were:

- "Most Desire" Duke Thornton.
- "Best Mental Attitude" John Bierma
- "Best Defensive Back" Enno Rose
- "Best Defensive Lineman" Al Conrad

All four of these boys were named All Midwest Conference. Duke and Enno were the co-captains for the Indians.

Honor Students

Row I: Randy Kooy, Jessica Tysen, Jerry Terborg, Gail Sekema. Row II: Paul Boer, Mary Konovsky, Jim DeVries, Phyllis DeVries.

Methods Used In Selecting Students

The honor students are those who have the highest grade point standing in the senior class. The points are figured on all grades each student earns beginning with the freshman year and ending with the first semester of the senior year. From this group the valedictorian and salutatorian honors will be figured at the end of the senior year.

President- Randy Kooy
Vice President- Elaine Knip
Secretary- Jessica Tysen
Treasurer- Jerry Terborg

Class Prophecy

DeMotte on April 28, 1984, was declared a disaster area by Karen Odle, the first woman president of the United States. The once prosperous city of DeMotte had been greatly damaged by tremendous showers of rain which eventually turned into a flood. The mayor of DeMotte, Duke Thornton, gave a speech of encouragement to the people of his city and also expressed the desire for former residents of DeMotte to come back and try to restore their city to its former state. Thus it happened that the entire 1968 graduating class of DeMotte High School appeared on the scene of disaster.

Many of the residents were actively involved in the restoration of DeMotte after the waters had receded. Carol Terpstra, Edna Williams, and Brenda McKim had volunteered their services and were working full time cleaning up DeMotte. Demonstrating for flood control were Nancy DeFries, Bonnie DeYoung, and Jessie VanSchepen. The head of the Missing Persons Bureau, Ken Rockwell, had reported that the flood resulted in the death of two persons: Dan Dorn whose remains were found on a basketball rim, and Gail Sekema who was found dead, clenching a book of poems. Bob DeYoung, head of the Pick-Up-All-Dead-Animals committee, and Roddy Ruisard, head of the Sanitation Department, were working day and night cleaning up their city.

Many of the other residents had returned to their established occupations. Hank Zeldenrust and Roger Bykerk (new owner of Eenigenberg's) and Tom Hazlett (new owner of Kingma's) were presently engaged in a price war on vegetables. On a committee to impeach Enno Rose, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, were Jessica Tysen and Nancy VanKeppel; and they had employed Candy Lawson, Stella Goth, and Diane Herring to sing songs of protest against the court decisions that Enno had made. Millionaire Doug Thomas had recently purchased a Dating Computer and had found that Phyllis DeVries out of all the other girls in the town would be most compatible to him as a wife. Tom Hamstra, the new town cop, had just arrested Ruth DeHaan and Carla Hayes for vandalizing boats in Janet Oezer's used boat dock. Denny Owen and Phil Punter had also been arrested recently--they for robbing the grocery store owned by Mike DeBourbon. Greg Erwin, Attorney at Law, had been chosen to represent them in court. Elaine Knip and Susan Musch were pursuing their careers as old maid school teachers. Jim DeVries was the owner of a Psychedelic Junk Shop, while Bob Sullivan was the owner of a pool and gambling hall. Betty Nannenga, the editor of the Kankakee Valley Post, had Pam Zeck employed to deliver the daily editions of the KVP to the doorsteps of the city residents. Susie Peterson was the largest hog raiser in the county, Dorene Tillger was the head of the Ladies Auxiliary Marching Band, and Mary Konovsky was stock-girl in Mike's grocery store, head of nonbreakable items.

The former residents of DeMotte gradually appeared on the scene. Debby Carmichael and Norma Hoffman, both on furlow from the WAC, were the first ones to arrive. Nancy Misch, Woman's World Wrestling Champion, appeared with her trainer, Harold Ventrello. Dick Boezeman, head of a large dance studio, arrived with two of his best pupils, Diana Gwin and Carol Rayonec. Dr. Randy Kooy and his wife Terri Todd came out from Appalachia where Randy was holding the office of mayor. Wayne Walstra, who was presently unemployed, appeared with his wife, Margie Roorda, and their ten kids. Tim Hittle, who came with his chauffeur, Daryl Phelps, had recently taken over Red Skelton's spot as a comedian on T.V. John Bierma was the new Captain Kangaroo, while Paul Kamminga was the speech maker for President Odle. Roy Jonkman who was on an African Safari, and John Takacs, the new pope, had come to DeMotte from across the ocean. Hippie Gene Lovell appeared from Old Town, and Jerry Terborg had just returned from giving a musical performance before the Queen of England. Kathy Roorda was found to be employed as a Volkswagen test driver, and Debby Bormann, in training for the Olympics, had run to DeMotte from Salt Lake City. Mike Crane was a professor of psychology at Harvard, and David Zandstra was a famous bone specialist. The last member of the '68 graduating class to appear was an author, Paul Boer. After spending a few weeks in DeMotte, he decided to write his next book on the disaster and of the tremendous loyalty of the great class of 1968 to their city of DeMotte, Indiana.

Last Will And Testament

- I, John Bierma, so hereby bequeath my quick wittedness to Dave Sytsma.
I, Paul Boer, give my hardy laugh to Tom Sullivan.
I, Dick Bozeman, leave my empty Ketchup tubes to David Caldwell.
I, Debby Bormann will my sports ability to Cheryl Terborg.
I, Roger Bykerk, give my faithful crutches to Ron Kamminga.
I, Mike Debourbon, bequeath my tiny feet to Mary Christopher.
We, Debby Carmichael and Norma Hoffman will our borrowed coats to Karen and Kathy Wallin.
I, Nancy DeFries, leave my occasional emotional outbreaks to Debi DeYoung.
I, Ruth DeHaan, give my multi-erased report cards to Lynda Roth.
I, Jim DeVries, will my originality in opening chemistry drawers to Mike Kenning.
I, Phyllis DeVries, give all my old boyfriends to Christine DeVries.
I, Bob DeYoung, bequeath my perfect mask of innocence to Linda Thomas.
I, Bonnie DeYoung, will my guaranteed life time permanent to Ellen Wilke.
I, Dan Dorn, leave my precious comb and mirror set to Bob Swanson.
I, Greg Erwin, will my outstanding humbleness to Dave Dykhuizen.
I, Stella Goth, bequeath my elevator shoes for driving to Connie Hoffman.
We, Diana Gwin and Carol Rayonec, will our play prompting careers to Nancy Gilbert and Donna Barker.
We, Tom Hamstra and Jessie Van Schepen, give our notorious driving abilities to Nancy Stellingwerf and Danny Hayes.
I, Carla Hayes, bequeath my short skirts to Michele Gross. Better give them a little tup when you see a teacher!
We, Thom Hazlet and Enno Rose, leave our outstanding basketball cheer (?) to Marvin Barker.
I, Dian Herring, will my possessiveness to Pat Thomas.
I, Tim Hittle, give my humorous jokes to Janice Mosier. Do your best to keep them clean.
We, Mike Crane and Darrell Phelps, bequeath our over-bearing personalities to Cheryl DeBoer and Sheila Eeneningburg.
I, Roy Jonkman, leave my strange attitude toward girls to Keith Hamstra.
We, Betty Nannenga and Paul Kamminga, will our body stretchers to Phyllis Woudema and David Cron.
I, Elaine Knip, give my "childish Job" to Betty Van Schepen.
I, Mary Konovsky, will my ability to control almost every society, club, and committee to Ardy Riens.
I, Randy Kooy, leave my slide rule with the mirror-like finish to Stanley Musch.

I, Candy Lawson, give my knack for science to Donna Nees.
 I, Gene Lovell, bequeath my green suit to Eric Boon. Wear it with pride on Thursdays.
 I, Brenda McKim, give my giggle to Roy Hough. Don't wear it out.
 I, Nancy Misch, will my favorite grey blouse with the chocolate brown paint spot on it to Noralene Sanders.
 I, Susan Musch, leave my "steadiness" to Linda Leach.
 I, Karen Odle, bequeath to Janet Odle my ability to skip school often.
 I, Janet Oezer, will my law-abiding qualities to Ronald Borman.
 We, Denny Owen and Phil Punter, give our fun loving personalities to Sue Bozell and Charlene Moolenaar.
 I, Ken Rockwell, leave to Dave Takacs four worthless car generators.
 I, Kathy Roorda, will my ability to hot rod my parents car to Karen Roorda. Don't wreck it now!
 I, Margie Roorda, bequeath to Tricia Starkey my awe-inspiring voice.
 I, Roddy Ruisard, give my famous red pick-up to Jim Nagel.
 I, Gail Sekema, will my well-known tactfulness to Mike Orsburn.
 I, Bob Sullivan, leave my blue '56 Chevy to Phil Crane.
 I, John Takacs, bequeath my choice spot in the parking lot to Mike Holmes.
 I, Jerry Terborg, give to Dennis DeYoung my broken music stand.
 I, Doug Thomas, bequeath to Danny Mitchell my "Little Black Book Encyclopedia Set".
 We, Carol Terpstra and Edna Williams, will our boisterous actions to Edna Belstra and Beverly Moolenaar.
 I, Duke Thornton, leave my cute little shower room song to Bob Borman.
 I, Jessica Tysen, bequeath my tweed English riding suit to Margret Kampenga and Diane Kamminga.
 I, Nancy Van Keppel, give to James Wahl a neat pile of broken glass. There's glass in your eye.
 I, Harold Ventrello, will all my vocal talent to Steve Spraggs.
 I, Wayne Walstra, bequeath my precious curly locks to Doug Hamstra. Somebody should be able to wear them.
 I, David Zandstra, will to Larry Gibson a huge pile of cracked plaster.
 I, Pam Zeck, leave my well known whisper-like voice to Jim Hart.
 I, Hank Zeldenrust, will my trips out in the boondocks to Pat Jacobsma.
 I, Susie Peterson, give my delicate features to Al Conrad.
 We, Terri Todd and Dorene Tillger, having everything and wanting to keep it, bequeath nothing to Jan Nuss and Carol Tesky.

To The Teachers We Will

Mr. Curtiss - an orderly play cast
Mr. Hale - two dozen new typewriters
Mr. Lawson - better security measures for his chemistry lab
Mrs. Wolf - a library with a chain on every book and magazine

Junior-Senior Banquet

The Junior-Senior Banquet was presented by the class of nineteen-hundred-sixty-eight on the twenty-first of April nineteen-hundred-sixty-seven at Halleck Center. The theme of the Banquet was "Three Coins in a Fountain." A Prom followed the Banquet, the music was furnished by the Crown Point High School Dance Band.

Homecoming

The Homecoming was held October 13, 1967, on the night of the DeMotte vs North White football game. The mothers of the Senior football players were presented with roses by Deb Bormann. At the half, Duke Thorton and Enno Rose, Senior football players, crowned Ruth De Haan as Homecoming Queen of 1967. After the game, the Student Council held a semi-formal dance in the beautifully decorated gymnasium featuring the "Tri-Nomials" from Hebron.

MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED

Randy Kooy and Mary Konovsky are sure to succeed, that is with a little help.

Senior Superlatives

MOST HUMOROUS

Pam Zeck and Den Owens play their role well as class cut-ups

MOST POPULAR

Do you think Ruth Dehaan and Jim Devries will be elected?

MOST ATHLETIC

Deb "Borms" Bormann is receiving the big toss from Dan Dorn.

BEST DRESSED

Terri Todd and Gene Lovell are definitely best dressed, but best dressed where?

MOST COURTEOUS

Don't be fooled by Jerry Terborg's and Elaine Knip's innocent smiles.

BIGGEST FLIRTS

Care to guess Phil Punter's and Phyllis DeVries's translation?

A GAME GUY'S PRAYER

Author Unknown

Help me to be a sport in this little game of life. I don't ask for any place in the lineup; play me where You need me. I only ask for the stuff to give You a hundred per cent of what I've got. If all the hard drives came my way I thank You for the compliment. Help me to remember You won't let anything come that You and I together can't handle. And Help me to take the bad breaks as part of the game. Help make me thankful for them.

And, God, help me always to play on the square, no matter what the other players do. Help me to come clean. Help me to see that often the best part of the game is helping other guys. Help me to be a "regular fellow" with the other players.

Finally, God, if fate seems to uppercut me with both hands and I'm laid up on the shelf in sickness or old age, help me to take that as a part of the game also. Help me not to whimper or squeal that the game was a frame-up or that I had a raw deal. When in the dusk I get the final bell, I ask for no lying complimentary stanes. I'd only like to know that You feel I've been a good guy.

AN OPPORTUNITY TO SERVE

An opportunity to serve awaits industrious young men and women at Northern Indiana Public Service Company. As one of the top gas and electric distribution utilities in the United States, NIPSCO is constantly looking for new processes and methods of efficient operation. These include atomic power generation, extra high voltage transmission, underground electric distribution, computerized system planning, underground storage of natural gas, community analyses and electronic data processing.

Ready to grow with a growing company?

IN AN ATMOSPHERE OF GROWTH

NIPSCO is one of the highest-paying utilities in the State of Indiana. Its attractive employee benefit package—tuition refund plan, vacations, holidays, life insurance, comprehensive medical insurance, pensions, etc.—provides an atmosphere for individual growth. Fifteen leading colleges and universities are strategically located throughout its service area with others available in the greater Chicago area. Drop in. We'll be glad to talk jobs with you.

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased from 10.5 million to 12.5 million, and the number of people aged 75 and over has increased from 4.5 million to 6.5 million (Office of National Statistics 2000).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of older people in the community. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for older people, which sets out a vision for the future of older people's services. The strategy is based on the following principles: older people should be able to live independently in their own homes; older people should be able to access the services they need; and older people should be able to participate in the decisions that affect their lives.

The strategy also sets out a number of key objectives for the future of older people's services. These include: to improve the quality of life of older people; to reduce the inequalities in health and social care between different groups of older people; to ensure that older people are able to access the services they need; and to ensure that older people are able to participate in the decisions that affect their lives.

The strategy is a key document for the development of older people's services in the UK. It sets out a clear vision for the future of older people's services and provides a framework for the development of policies and practices to achieve this vision.
